Supervisor Burke made the following statement:

“Millions of California’s finest sons and daughters have courageously defended our nation whenever its freedoms and national interests have been threatened. By their selfless commitment and sacrifices to duty, honor, and country, our great nation has been preserved and flourished despite times of adversity and peril.

“Armed Forces Day is annually celebrated on the third Saturday in May to honor America’s valiant men and women in uniform serving on land, at sea, and in the air. Thousands of Los Angeles County residents are serving as members of the Armed Forces on duty today and all of our County citizens strongly support, respect, and appreciate those in uniform who unselfishly risk their lives to stop aggression.”

Therefore, at the suggestion of Supervisor Burke, and on motion of Supervisor Antonovich, seconded by Supervisor Yaroslavsky, unanimously carried, the Board took the following actions:

1. Proclaimed Saturday, May 17, 2008 as “Armed Forces Day” throughout Los Angeles County; and
2. Urged all County citizens to participate in patriotic events in honor of this day and of the men and women in uniform it symbolizes.
